With taking pictures, selling ads,
 Depleting countless memo pads,
 Arranging layouts, writing lines,
 And starting over many times,

With staying up to half past one
 'Til copy-reading was all done,
 With writing of headlines 'till we're beat,
 And trying to those deadlines meet,

We're all worn out from so much work,
 Which nearly made us go beserk
 While doing homework on the run,
 But still we've had a lot of fun.

We'd like to say that now we're through,
 We're very proud to give to you This record of the year gone by
 At this, our high school, Moss Point High.

In Memoriam

RONALD M. CARTER
"Ronnie"

Out into the misty beyond he walked one day Leaving a beautiful memory of the youth in Life Which covered his countenance while on life's highway Teaching us that with each day there must be strife With memorable tasks to accomplish and honorable words to say.

Each memory of you will bring to us thoughts,
Of joy to Him for creating you,
And allowing your ideals of ideals of Life to be sought,
By all those friends whom you knew,
Yes, each thought will bring to our view your smile,
And your warm, friendly, and merry "Hi" you Carried all the while.

 Many things I'm sure I have been expressed by others the qualities you possess. But I have a few things to add besides the facts that you are cute, sweet, and intelligent.

 I think you were the most most thoughtful

 had. You are a very dear very helpful toward inspiring all you've done. Lot's of
